Investment process

Nikko AM NZ is an active style neutral manager with a lower risk approach to investment. Our domestic equity portfolio is constructed and managed with a blend of value and growth companies, with a modest Australian exposure (maximum 20% permitted).

In addition, the Fund has a negative screen to exclude liquor, tobacco, armaments and gambling equities.

Structure and taxation

The Fund vehicle is a Portfolio Investment Entity (PIE) which is priced daily. Investors select their own Portfolio Investment Rate. The Fund invests directly into tradeable capital market securities. Whilst the majority of the return is "excluded income" there will be a portion of interest income, dividends not fully imputed, and certain ASX listed shares will not fit the criteria for trading gains/losses to be excluded. Information is provided to the IR and investors on an annual basis.

Distributions

Generally on calendar quarters, or at any date for any period determined by the Manager.

Currency management

Foreign currency exposures created as a consequence of capital markets investment may be hedged to NZD at the Manager's discretion with an operational range of 0% to 105%.

Management fees and other charges

Investment management fees will be negotiated separately with each investor and invoiced outside the Fund.

All Fund statutory and operating costs will be met directly by the Manager.

Commentary

The S&P/NZX 50 Gross Index rose 0.69% in August 2016 with 'small caps' outperforming leaders. The S&P/ASX200 Accumulation Index, S&P500 and FTSE100 returned -1.6%, +0.1% and +1.7% respectively in local currencies. Most indices performed poorly leading into the end of the month. On an annual basis, the NZX 50 Index has recorded an impressive 32.4% rise with the most recent earnings season generally providing good news. Results were in line with expectations with increased dividends continuing to be the main theme.

The Fund underperformed by 0.07% during the month returning 0.62%. Retirement stocks had a strong month with the largest positive contributors to relative return coming from the Fund's overweight positions in Summerset Group (SUM) and Metlifecare (MET). Both companies reported strong operating results with additional support coming from valuation uplifts.

Not holding Chorus also added relative value as the stock fell after reporting a mild decline in earnings for the year ended 30 June 2016. Conversely our modest overweight in NZ Oil and Gas (NZO) performed strongly over the month to rally ~16% following the annual earnings announcement.

Japara Healthcare (JHC) fell 18.4% after continuing concerns for government funding, a below expectations outlook in its result and big misses from other sector companies results. Fisher & Paykel Healthcare (FPH) detracted from performance after a stellar run. The company fell after announcing pending legal action against one of their competitors, Resmed, who immediately initiated counter suits.

Both Contact Energy (CEN) and NZ Refining (NZR) detracted from relative performance given our overweight positions, as the stock prices fell. CEN marginally disappointed for the full year result while NZR announced stronger than expected results which were none the less weak compared to the prior year.
