Investment process

Nikko AM NZ is an active style neutral manager with a lower risk approach to investment. Our domestic equity portfolio is constructed and managed with a blend of value and growth companies, with a modest Australian exposure (maximum 20% permitted).

In addition, the Fund has a negative screen to exclude liquor, tobacco, armaments and gambling equities.

Structure and taxation

The Fund vehicle is a Portfolio Investment Entity (PIE) which is priced daily. Investors select their own Prescribed Investor Rate. The Fund invests directly into tradeable capital market securities. Whilst the majority of the return is "excluded income" there will be a portion of interest income, dividends not fully imputed, and certain ASX listed shares will not fit the criteria for trading gains/losses to be excluded. Information is provided to the IR and investors on an annual basis.

Distributions

Generally on calendar quarters, or at any date for any period determined by the Manager.

Currency management

Foreign currency exposures created as a consequence of capital markets investment may be hedged to NZD at the Manager's discretion with an operational range of 0% to 105%.

Commentary

All eyes were on the United States election early in the month which produced a surprise (relative to polls) victory for Donald Trump. Equity markets initially treated the result quite negatively before trading higher on the back of what was viewed as a more moderate / inclusive speech from President Elect Trump. The MSCI World Index ended the month up 2.1%. The bond markets did not fare so well, with the likes of the US 10-year rate rising 56 basis points over the month. The New Zealand equity market, with a yield focus was impacted by the bond sell off and ended the month down 0.9% as measured by the S&P/NZX 50. The Australian market performed more in line with global markets, up 3.0% based on the S&P/ASX 200 index.

The Fund modestly outperformed the index by 0.30% but was nonetheless still down 0.54% in absolute terms. The position in NZ Refining Company (NZR) which rose 15.2% over the month added the most value as refining margins rose and the NZ dollar fell assisting the earnings outlook for the company.

The a2 Milk Company (ATM) announced that for the first four months of their financial year 2017 revenue had grown by 96% year-on-year and EBITDA had grown 473%, ahead of consensus expectations. ATM shares rose 7.1% on the day of the announcement and 32.5% for the month of November adding to relative fund performance. Mainfreight (MFT) also added value following their first half profit result and positive outlook comments relating to current trading.

Aconex (ACX) continued to hurt fund performance with the stock down 19.4% for the month despite not making any significant announcements. Sentiment is yet to find a base for tech companies following Trump's election. Our nil holding in Air NZ (AIR) detracted from performance as the stock rallied modestly against a negative index despite an underwhelming operational update.

Our substantial overweight Infratil (IFT) detracted from performance as the first half result disappointed the market. The performance portfolio companies, Trustpower and Perth Energy were the main detractors within the result.

During the month the Fund exited its investment in Mirvac Group, the Australia listed property trust to raise general liquidity in the Fund. The Fund also made other minor adjustments including adding to our investment in Restaurant Brands (RBD) and Pacific Edge (PEB).
